

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

I would like to announce that the 2020 Census has caused quite a few changes for Decatur County as far as the US Congressional District, State Senate District and State Representative Districts. Please refer to House Bill 1581 for reference.

Changes have been made effective January 1, 2021 that will affect the Primary 2022 Election Cycle.

US CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT CHANGE TO 9TH DISTRICT

All townships within Decatur County have been moved to the Ninth (9th) Congressional District. HB1581 pg. 75

Trey Hollingsworth, US Congressional District 9

1641 Longworth House Office Bldg.

Washington, DC 20515

Phone: (202) 225-5315

STATE SENATE DISTRICT 42

All townships within Decatur County are now all Senate, District 42. HB1581 pg. 56

Jean Leising, State Senator, District 42

200 W. Washington St

Indianapolis, IN 46204

Phone: 800-382-9467

DECATUR COUNTY INDIANA STATE REPRESENTATIVE DISTRICTS have changed drastically. So please be aware there are now three (3) different district that divide up Decatur County. Depending on what township/precinct will determine who your STATE REPRESENTATIVE is.

1. STATE REPRESENTATIVE, DISTRICT 55—HB1581 pg. 28

- Clinton Township, Fugit Township & Salt creek Township

Your representatives name:

Cindy Ziemke

State Representative, District 55

200 W. Washington St.

Indianapolis, IN 46204

Phone: 800-382-9841

2. STATE REPRESENTATIVE, DISTRICT 67-HB1581 pg. 32

- Marion Township, Sand Creek South precinct & Town of Westport

Randy Frye

State Representative, District 67

200 W. Washington St.

Indianapolis, IN 46204

Phone: 800-382-9841

3. STATE REPRESENTATIVE, DISTRICT 73-HB1581 pg. 34

- Adams Township, Clay Township, Jackson Township, & Washington Township. Sand creek North Precinct

J. Michael Davisson

State Representative, District 73

200 W. Washington St., Suite 401

Indianapolis, IN 46204

Phone: 800-382-9841

The State of Indiana is still in the process of updating their website with the new district lines so please be patient it takes time. If you have any further questions, please feel free to contact the Clerk's Office 812-663-8223 for additional information.